

The Pro Bono Network

2023 National Conference Presentation Proposal Application

Call for oral presentation proposals:

The Pro Bono Network is now accepting presentation proposals for the 2023 Pro Bono Network Conference. We encourage presentations that represent students as the lead presenters and capture this year's theme:

EMBRACING CHANGE TO ADVANCE CLIENT CENTERED CARE AS A COMMUNITY

Possible topics include, but are not limited to:

2023 THEME TOPICS

Embracing Change
Advancement in Client Care
Progress in Community Partnerships

STANDING TOPICS

Start-Up Stories
Clinic Expansion Stories
Integrating Interprofessionalism
Assessing Outcomes
Connecting Community

2023 Pro Bono Network Conference

Saturday, March 11th 2022
In-Person at Widener University

Please use the attached template for proposal submissions.

Oral presentations are limited to 20 minutes

Presentations may be combined for panel presentations

The Pro Bono Network

Proposal Deadline: February 1st, 2023

Please submit applications to the National Conference Chairs at pbncconferencechairs@gmail.com

Note: By submitting a proposal you are consenting to have your presentation live-streamed and recorded.

2023 Conference Call for Proposals

Title of Presentation:

Institution:

Please indicate which professions are involved:

Student Authors:

Student Email Addresses:

Faculty Author (if applicable):

Abstract (limit 300 words):

Proposal Deadline: February 1st, 2023

Please submit applications to the National Conference Chairs at pbnconferencechairs@gmail.com

Note: By submitting a proposal you are consenting to have your presentation live-streamed and recorded.